

Some useful introductory archives websites

Australia

Australian Society of Archivists
www.archivists.org.au

State Records, NSW – Index Page
http://www.records.nsw.gov.au/staterecords/a-z_index_4705.asp

State Records, NSW – Government Records Repository – Storage Boxes
http://www.records.nsw.gov.au/grr/storage_boxes_2636.asp

National Archives of Australia – Outreach activities
<http://www.naa.gov.au/whats-on/outreach-and-advocacy/index.aspx>

National Library of Australia – Community groups page
Preserving Australia's Documentary Heritage: A Starter Kit for Community Groups
<http://www.nla.gov.au/services/comgroups.html>

State Library of Queensland – Local history and small archives – Self-directed training manual
<http://fhr.slq.qld.gov.au/lhsa/tutorial.htm#Archival%20collection%20management>

Collections Australia Network sector information page (Australian Cultural Heritage Collections online) - various resources including email lists and significance assessment methodology
http://www.collectionsaustralia.net/sector_info/

reCollections – advice on preventive care of cultural materials
<http://archive.amol.org.au/reollections/index.htm>

Collections Council of Australia – National Standards for Museums and Galleries project
<http://www.collectionscouncil.com.au/first+announcement+16+may+2007.aspx>

UK

UK Standard for Record Repositories, 2004
<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/archives/standards-framework.htm>

Community Access to Archives Project (2003-04) Introductory advice on archival issues
<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/partnerprojects/caap/advice.htm>

Canada

The archivist's toolkit – Archives Association of British Columbia
<http://aabc.bc.ca/aabc/toolkit.html>

Manual for small archives (not so recent but still some useful advice)
<http://aabc.bc.ca/aabc/msa/default.htm>