

VICTOR DAVIDSON

Victor began his teaching career as a LOTE/ESL teacher and was appointed Teacher Librarian to Birrong Girls High School in 1998. His hobbies are horticulture, narrative discourse and game theory. He is conversant with Japanese and Ancient Egyptian culture. He draws inspiration from his mother who is still a practising Teacher Librarian at the age of 75 and who has presented him with a prospective retirement age.